SOLDIERS IN THE SENATE.

Twenty-four members of the United States Senate in the Fifty-eighth Congress were soldiers in the Civil War, eleven on the Union and thirteen on the Confederate side. One member of the Senate, Pettus, of Alabama, served also in the Mexican War, in which he attained the rank of Lieutenant.

The last battle of the Civil War was fought in Texas on May 11, 1865, and the practical end of the war is usually fixed either on that date or May 22 when the grand review of the armies of the Union was held at Washington. The Senate of the Fifty-eighth Congress came into official being on March 4, 1893, and between the close of the war and the meeting of the Senate thirty-eight years elapsed.

There are ninety Senators—twenty-two representing States which participated in the secession movement and sixty-eight from States which were either on the other side or had not been organized, or admitted at the time of the close of the Civil War. From eleven former Confederate States there are now thirteen former veterans of the war, a majority of the war, a majority of the whole number.

From the twenty-four States which were represented in the Senate at the close of the Civil War there are only eleven Senators who were in the Union service. The Senators who served in the Confederate army were Morgan and Pettus, of Alabama; Money and Mc Laurin, of Mississippi; McHenry, of Louisiana; Daniel and Martin, of Virginia; Mallory and Taliaferro, of Florida; Hale, of Tennessee, who was a General; Blackburn of Kentucky; Berry, Arkansas; and Bacon, of Georgia.

Among the Senators who served in the Union army are Alger, Foraker, Spooner, Scott, of West Virginia; Proctor, Quarles, of Wisconsin; Nelson, of Minnesota; and Warren, of Wyoming. A majority of the members of the Fifty-eighth House who saw service on either side in the Civil War is the Northern army. There are thirty former Confederates in the House—New York Sun.

SUMMER FADS FOR WOMEN.

They say that embroidered gloves are coming into vogue for summer wear, says an exchange, but it is doubtful whether they will ever become strictly popular. Great efforts have been made to introduce them before, but strangely enough whereas no extravagances are too great for us to adopt in the matter of hats and gloves, "hasten" very "slowly" when it comes to any radical change in gloves and shoes. In Paris the fancy for red shoes and stockings seems just now to show signs of becoming a vogue, but what Paris may do in the matter of footwear is by no means always advisable for us. With a black robe of four or five inches in length and charming no doubt, but out of doors they look bizarre and bring the feet too much into prominence. But there are some of the prettiest shoes in the soft shades of satin and are designed to wear with the evening dresses; they are embroidered in silks to match the gowns, and for these one can have nothing but praise. Naturally the amount of ornamentation they represent when carried out by hand makes them a rather expensive item which would be beyond the means of many of us.

AN UNLUCKY YEAR.

"If something terrible doesn't happen to the human race before the end of this year, I'm no true prophet," said the superstitious man. "Fate has written it down just as plain as day and there's no way dodging it. In the first place the year 1903 contains a mighty bad combination of figures. If you take them separately and add them up you will find that the result will be thirteen, no matter which way you work it out. "All right, you may laugh at me as far as I have gone, but nature will produce some more facts. In the year 1903 there are three days in which the thirteenth of the month fall on Friday. The first was February 13, the next was March 13, and the last will be November 13. "Take a look at the calendar and find out how many previous years had this many Fridays which came on the thirteenth of the month. On the 13th of February I forgot myself and walked under a ladder. Before I had gone half a block beyond that ladder I fell down and sprained my ankle."

"I am going to stay in the house all day on the thirteenth of November, and it's ten to one the house will catch fire."

"If figures count for anything this is the unluckiest year that old Father Time has presented to us in a mighty long while. It's a combination that can't be beat, and I'm just stalling around looking for trouble all the time."

BRAIN LEAKS.

Only a light head is easily turned. You cannot lift yourself up by pushing down others. Pursuing a high ideal is more profitable than chasing a low one. Some men never live long enough to learn the difference between fame and notoriety. The automatic piano player is a great improvement on some automatic players of pianos.

The get-something-for-nothing fellow is always the fellow who tries to give nothing for something. Giving flowers to the dead and unkind words to the living will not offset each other when the final judgment comes. The real Christian thanks God for his goodness; pretended Christians only tell their troubles to Him.

There are a great many fathers who think that there is nothing too good for their horses and that anything will do for their sons. The spectacle as a father taking his pipe from his mouth to exhortate while lecturing his son on the evils of tobacco using would be more amusing if it were less disgusting.

A Canton, Ohio, widow, recently widowed, went the entire length in a printed card of thanks to all who helped in any way on the occasion of the death of her husband. She was especially thankful to the minister who preached the funeral sermon; to the choir who furnished the music on the occasion; to the Red Men; the Daughters of Pheasant; the League of Leagues; the Bartender's Union; Daughters of America, and the Farmer's Outing Club, of which deceased was a member. Not to show partiality in the matter, she thanked by name a number of gentlemen and lady friends. The undertaker and grave digger seemed to be the only interested parties who were ignored in the miscellaneous thank offering.

OLD AGE IN DENMARK.

"In Denmark no respectable old man or woman need ever become a pauper; no respectable old man or woman ever crosses the threshold of a work house," writes Miss Edith Sellers in the Nineteenth Century and After, London. "Should a man—or a woman—who has completed his sixtieth year, find himself without the wherewithal on which to live, he applies to the local authorities not for pauper relief, but for old age relief; and by the law of 1891, they are bound to grant him, providing he can prove not only that his destitution is owing to no fault of his own, but that he has led a decent life, has worked hard and been thrifty; and that, during the ten previous years, he has neither received a single penny as poor-relief, nor been guilty of vagrancy, nor of beggary."

The Russian government flatly denies the reports of its intentions to secure exclusive privileges in Manchuria.

STATE NEWS.

D. S. Gay's hemp hatching works at Winchester were destroyed by fire last week.

Deputy Sheriff John Johnson was fired on from ambush in Bell county and badly wounded.

Owensboro capitalists will build a big shingle factory near the mouth of Barren river.

George Chestnut, aged 17 years, son of T. D. Chestnut, of Garrard county, died from burns received by falling into an open grate.

Two five-year-old boys were burned to death in a barn in Martinsville, Ind., which they set on fire while playing with matches.

Tom Skags, of Montgomery county, was struck and killed by a train Saturday morning. Nearly every bone in his body was crushed.

At White Plains, Hopkins county, Saturday night, W. F. Cardinal was shot and killed by Town Marshal F. O. Allison while resisting arrest.

The State meeting of the Kentucky Educational Association which was to have met at Nashville, will instead be held at Lexington June 23rd-25th.

Judge Hines, fabled in Woodford county, and owned by Charles R. Ellison, of Chicago, won the Derby race at Louisville Saturday. It is estimated that forty thousand people witnessed the race.

The amphitheater at the Shelby County Fair grounds and adjacent buildings, including floral hall, machinery hall, poultry building, &c., were destroyed by fire last week. Supposed to have been the work of an incendiary.

A feature of the street fair at Harrodsburg was the marriage of J. G. Conner and Miss Anna Ruth Clardy. They were married by County Judge Roach, while standing on a spiral tower, in the presence of several thousand people.

Henry H. Baker, Town Marshal of Springfield, was fined $20 and costs for disturbing a meeting of the Town Council. He threatened to throw the President of the Council out of a second-story window, which resulted in breaking up the meeting.

Mr. John W. Ray has filed a petition for a rehearing by the Court of Appeals of the case of Allen W. Young and J. C. W. Beckham, in which Gov. Beckham's eligibility for re-election as Governor was an issue. Mr. Ray says the questions in the case are so great and so far reaching as to require that a second consideration be asked. Later—The petition was withdrawn.

Officers from Mt. Sterling went to Winchester and arrested Sarah V. King, a young white woman, on the charge of stealing silverware from J. C. Wells. The articles were found. She was arraigned in the Circuit Court last January on the charge of stealing three thousand dollar bills from J. Gano Johnson. The silverware was stolen from Johnson's house two years ago, but the chest, belonging to Wells and containing same, was not opened until a few days ago when the articles were missed.

Miss Della Powell, of Jassamine county, the victim of the negro brute who was hanged at Nicholasville about a year ago, died last week in Richmond, never having recovered from the shock of the assault. Her funeral was held in Nicholasville and was a remarkable demonstration in many ways. The business houses of the town closed during the services and the church was crowded with sympathetic friends of the family. Four ministers took part in the services. The floral tributes have never been equalled in Nicholasville, and an escort of citizens preceded the white hearse, carrying and strewing flowers.

In Oldham county Jack Maxfield, an unmarried man about 40 years old, was killed by Lucien Wheeler and his son, C. H. Wheeler, and W. P. Kelly and his son, Morris Kelly. There had been ill feeling for some time between the Wheelers and Kellys on the one side and Maxfield. On Friday morning Maxfield was hauling lumber to his home, which necessitated his going through the farms of Kelly and Wheeler. Both Kelly and Wheeler warned him to keep out, but Maxfield threatened to go through or shoot his way through. This enraged the Kellys and Wheelers, and, arming themselves, they ridged Maxfield with buckshot, as soon as he started to drive through the grounds.

The longest step the Republicans have made in the direction of tariff reform is the expression of opinion that it should "be revised" by its friends. This settles the question so far as the Republicans are concerned.

FROM KANSAS.

Kiowa, Kansas April 30, 1902.

Editor of News:

No doubt the readers of your paper will be surprised to hear from an old friend who has been silent for some time. I will say at the beginning that I am the only one of the family left to tell the story. While looking over one of your late papers I saw the pictures of some of old friends when I recognized that of John Hubank most especially he being one of the first men that I can remember, if not the first. He was our nearest neighbor when my father died and was always a personal friend. I was indeed glad to know that he was still among the living. Reading the Adair County News brings back recollections of my childhood days when a boy playing on the blue-grass of old Kentucky.

I will now try and give a short description of the country where I now live. I bought a ranch consisting of 2100 acres in the Medicine River in Barber county, Kansas; it is about the center of the State east and west and on the southern boundary. My occupation has been for the last fifteen years farming and feeding cattle and hogs. This country is fine for farming and stock raising. A great many cattle and hogs are fed for the market. The country is mostly prairie there being some timber on the river and orchards that have been planted. The climate is pleasant and it is also one of the healthiest countries I have ever seen.

I would like very much to come to Kentucky and visit my old friends; but no matter how I like the country, I will now bring these few lines to a close hoping to see all of you in the near future.

Your friend,

C. S. PAGE.

TESSATION.

There was a big sensation in Leesville, Ind., when W. H. Brown of that place, who was expected to die, had his life saved by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. He writes: "I endured insufferable agonies from Asthma but your 'New Discovery' gave me immediate relief and soon thereafter effected a complete cure. Similar cures of Consumption, Pseudo-Tuberculosis and Grip are numerous. It's the peerless remedy for all throat and lung troubles. Price 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed by all druggists. Trial bottles free."

A society darling at Atlanta, Ga., who led the German and always occupied a choice box at the theater, has laid aside his immaculate kid gloves and gaudy neckties, and put on a substantial suit of striped goods furnished at the expense of the State. This change of apparel was due to circumstances over which he had no control. While in the employ of a bank he conceived the notion that the money of the institution was accumulated especially for the gratification of his luxurious tastes and acted accordingly.

THE OLD EXCUSE.

After the reporter had departed the Public Official began to fear that he had said too much. Noticing his thoughtful mood his wife asked: "What is the matter, dear?" "I am afraid I spoke too plainly to that reporter and my superiors may call me up on the carpet." Being a wise woman and accustomed to matters of this kind she said: "O, never worry. What's the matter with the old story about being misunderstood?" Ordinarily this would have been sufficient, but the Public Official was afraid that the general public would not stand for it again.

The University of Virginia has decided heretofore to have a president at $5,000 a year, instead of a chairman of the faculty.

As the result of an earthquake the level of the Dead Sea has fallen considerably and the flow of the river Jordan has been accelerated.

THE ADAIR COUNTY NEWS
Published Every Wednesday
BY THE
Adair County News Co.
(INCORPORATED)

CHAS. S. HARRIS, Editor
The Adair County News is published for the Adair and adjacent counties.
Entered at the Postoffice at Glasgow, Ky., as second class matter.
WED. MAY 13, 1903.
For State Treasurer.

We are authorized to announce that Henry H. Newirth, of this county, is a candidate for State Treasurer, subject to the action of the Democratic primary, May 18, 1903.

Returns from Saturday's primary indicate the nomination of the following ticket: Gov. Governor, J. C. W. Beckham; Lieutenant Governor, W. P. Thorne; Auditor, S. W. Hager; Treasurer, H. M. Bosworth; Secretary of State, H. V. McChesney; Superintendent of Agriculture, Hubert Vreeland; Clerk of the Court of Appeals, Morgan Chinn. The race for Attorney General is in doubt with N. B. Hays in the lead.

The assassination of James B. Marcum, a prominent lawyer of Jackson, in Breathitt county, is another dark spot on the name and reputation of our State. It is the result of a conspiracy if published statements can be relied on, and while the guilty parties have not yet been arrested, Governor Beckham was prompt to give such aid as is within his power to secure their arrest. It is a cold blooded act and every person connected with it should pay the severest penalty. The time has come when law and order must prevail or our State suffer in honor and in development. Tragedy will follow tragedy until the law puts the rope to work; assassinations will play havoc so long as cold blooded conspiracies and assassins are defended by a part of the press of the State. We do not wish to associate the assassination of Mr. Goebel with that of Mr. Marcum; we do not desire to resurrect that subject, but both are assassinations, both foul and damnable plots executed, and yet every officer and every move that have been made to bring out and try the assassin of Mr. Goebel have been denounced by a part of the press of this State. They assert that every man accused of the crime is innocent; that every witness who gives damaging testimony is a liar and that every jury is perjured. James Howard, Caleb Powers and Yontsee have all been declared innocent and their trials a mock of justice by that class of papers that seek to keep up prejudice and to hold the Republican party together by reason of keeping alive the animosity that prevailed in one of the most turbulent periods of political warfare in the history of our State. The time has come when reason should sidetrack prejudice; when crime should meet the condemnation of every reputable citizen; when the unraveling of conspiracies and the prosecution of murderers should receive the endorsement of every citizen who believes in law and order and especially should this be true of the press. But this is not the case and to the shame of our State a part of the press is still seeking to liberate every man accused of the murder of Mr. Goebel, to denounce the courts and slander the jury. With this feeling abroad in the land, with such efforts to paralyze prosecutions what else can be expected than that murder of the foulest order will continue. The blood of Mr. Goebel, the blood of Mr. Marcum cries out to the law-abiding element of this State to stamp out the hellish conspiracies that threaten to sink the fair name of Old Kentucky down to the level of its early days of blood and warfare. The press of the State should sustain all legal efforts to detect members of such foul conspiracies and should give its moral support to legal prosecutions. Until this support has been reached life and the pursuits of happiness will be an uncertain quantity and State reputation and development will trail in the dust.

Commenting upon Senator Han- n's statement that industrial depression is bound to come sooner or later, the Boston Globe asks, "Is that to be the outcome of operation of the trust? Is that what the present much vaunted prosperity of the country is to end in?" To which the New York Commercial reports: "Well, did the Globe think that the trust had to assure an everlasting and eternal prosperity? That some scheme had been devised to keep prices up forever; that some elixir had been discovered, a dose of which would prevent our business history of alternating good times and bad times from ever repeating itself." That is exactly what republican papers have promised the people. They have insisted that the republican party had discovered an "elixir" and that the people had but to keep the republican party in power in order to prevent our "business history of alternating good times and bad times from ever repeating itself."

The prohibitionists met in State Convention at Louisville last week, adopted a platform, leaving out the Woman's Suffrage plank and named the following ticket for State officers: For Governor, T. B. Demaree; Lieut. Governor, O. T. Wallace; Commissioner of Agriculture, B. T. Ammerman; Secretary of State, Chas. Brundage; Superintendent of Public Instruction, Miss H. E. Brooks; Treasurer, J. A. Barrall. Hon. John D. White was in the Convention and a speech stated that he had left the Republican party because it had made no effort to assist in running down the assassins of Mr. Goebel, and had not lived up to the plank in 1896 platform declaring against whiskey.

The St. Louis Republic speaking of the dedicatory ceremonies says: The benefits of the legitimate exploitation of the World's Fair and the World's Fair City arising from the Dedication ceremonies are already beginning to be felt in the friendly comment of the American press. There are some exceptions to this fact of newspaper approval, but they are due either to premeditated malice or to misleading reports sent out during Dedication Week for the purpose of "knocking" the World's Fair. The one dominating fact of the situation is that the truth will prevail in the end and the entire success of the Dedication ceremonies be freely confessed.

There is no doubt but there is a move on foot to have Mr. Cleveland nominated for the Presidency at the next Democratic National Convention. Several leading papers in the East are outspoken for him, and there is a sentiment for him in some portions of the South. He would not suit Kentucky and should be nominated he could not get the solid vote of the State by several thousand.

There ought to be a general hanging in Breathitt county. Why Jack will permit men to live who persist in shooting down their fellowmen from ambush and court house windows is something we do not understand. Hon. James B. Marcum, a prominent lawyer, was the last victim. He was assassinated last week at Jackson for doing his duty.

Rev. Geo. O. Barnes thinks he can restore order in the mountains of Kentucky. He is now at Jackson, Breathitt county, preaching the doctrine of Dowism. He declares his implicit faith in Dowie as Elijah II, and his ability to accomplish more among the lawless of the State than a regiment of soldiers.

The post-office scandal at Washington is growing worse, and the more it is stirred the stronger the stench. Mr. Roosevelt wants the investigation settled before the Presidential campaign opens. The Democrats in Congress will not be asleep. The whitewashing process will not work.

Caleb Powers will not be tried at this term of the Scott County Circuit Court. Judge Cantrell refused to vacate the bench and his action will have to be passed upon by the Court of Appeals.

Walter Bronston, who accidentally killed himself in Lexington last week, carried life insurance to the amount of $21,000.

CAMPBELLVILLE.
Three colored citizens of this city languish in jail at Lebanon for raising a large sized shanty on the cars between this and Lebanon some time ago. Their respective names are Sam Anderson, Michael Hart and Anderson Fisher. Will Hart confessed, and got off with a fine of $10. The others were fined $30 each in default of which they were sent to jail, and will have to work out their fines.

J. T. Herndon, of Akron, O., formerly one of the original C. & O. Railroad engineers, C. S. Hill, of Lebanon and W. T. Jones, of this place, went over the Railroad between Lebanon and Greensburg last week on a tour of inspection for the purpose of a valuation of the road bed, tunnel, bridges, etc. Their testimony will be taken in the trial between the L. & N., and the counties of Marion, Taylor and Green.

Rev. J. T. Nall, a popular Baptist minister and pastor of three churches six miles North of here died of brain trouble on the 5th inst. at his residence near Pleasant Hill Church and was buried at the Campbellville Cemetery the next day. The funeral train was large, consisting of about 150 persons conveyed in 47 different kinds of vehicles. The community in which he lived has sustained a great loss by his death. The funeral sermon was preached by Rev. Grady, of Greensburg, at Pleasant Hill Church.

The growing wheat throughout the county is reported as looking very fine. Anyone wanting thrashing machinery can make money by buying from Jos. H. Chandler.

Our fellow-townsmen, Wm. Newton, went fishing to Robinson Creek. He caught no fish, but secured a lot of the largest sized bull frog, which he says are better than fish, or spring chickens.

JAMESTOWN.
We can now begin to see how we miss the News as the last week's issue failed to come in and you have no idea how we missed it in our homes.

Gardening is the chief go now in town.

The new jail is a certainty now, as the fiscal court signed the contract Saturday.

Plenty of fish in the small streams. Mrs. Pinky Jasper and daughter, Miss Mabel, of Smithfield, Ill., are visiting the family of A. P. Simpson. Mrs. Jasper is a sister of Mrs. E. C. Willis, of Columbia, and her daughter is a real charming young lady of 17.

Joe Woldridge has sold out his livery at Somerset and come back to Russell, we hope to make it his home. He will either settle at Seventy-Six or Jamestown. It is not known which.

Mrs. A. D. Patterson has returned from a visit to her many friends in Columbia.

Since Dockery has gone to the city this week to buy good.

Libburn Phelps and brother, Love, have just returned from a visit to Buffalo and Niagara Falls. They had a pleasant trip.

Mrs. W. B. Patterson, who has been on the sick list for the last ten days is up again.

KENDALL.
J. M. Lester, who has been confined to his room for several days, is improving.

L. O. Taylor, Montpelier, visited friends at this place last week.

T. B. Davidson, Liberty, was here on business Friday.

Jack Vaughan, Lula, visited his sister, Mrs. Rutha McClure last week.

Dr. T. C. Grider, Creelsboro, was here Saturday.

Wm. Wheat and son, Elmer, of Denmark, were here one day last week on business.

Luther McKinley and family, of Denmark, visited relatives here last Sunday.

All who attended the quilting at the home of Mrs. Sam Vaughan's last Thursday, report a nice time.

W. E. Lester, who has been attending the Louisville College of Dentistry, returned home last week.

COLUMBIA MARKET.
REPORTED BY SAM LEWIS.

PHIL.
Mr. Crit Miller lost a good mare last Monday.
Mr. Rube Jones and wife, of near Nashville, visited friends at this place last week.
Mr. J. C. Tom's barn burned a few days ago, fire started in hay near roof supposed to have come from a match.
Mr. Tipps, of Hustonville, was here Wednesday. He sold our merchants some flour.
Dr. J. D. Combs, who is attending medical school at Louisville, visited his mother and friends last Sunday.
Bro. Wyatt Montgomery preached at the Christian Church the first Sunday.
We are having a good Sunday school and regular attendance.
Mr. J. C. Chilton, traveling salesman, was here last Monday.

NEW BUGGIES.

We sell the Fisher and Phoenix Buggies. We also have a nice line of Buckboards. If you are going to buy a vehicle this year it will pay you to see us and get prices before you buy.

BEARD & JACKMAN,
COLUMBIA, KY.

The two thousand six hundred and fifty-sixth anniversary of the foundation of Rome, according to tradition, was appropriately observed in the Eternal City last week. There's one thing we've always liked about Rome; she is not bothered with the man who likes to tell you he used to shoot squirrels where the postoffice now stands.

REX.

THIS BEAUTIFUL STALLION is a dark Chestnut Sorrel, 161 hands high, and is one of the best made up horses in the State. He is perfect in his gait and one of the best drivers that ever wore a collar. REX has proven himself a great breeder, transmitting his style and qualities to a marked degree. PEDIGREE—He was sired by Artist 75, he by King William 67, he by Washington Denmark 94. First dam Cabell's Lexington, second dam by Goldust. REX will make the present season at my stable for $6.00 to insure a living colt sound and all right.

RILEY—I will at the same time and place, stand my fine jack, RILEY at $5.00 to insure a living colt. Location, on Disappointment Creek, it miles East of Columbia.

S. D. CRENSHAW.

NOTICE, STOCKMEN!

Jordon Peacock.

The best Breeder in Kentucky, will make the present season at his new home in Gradyville, Ky., and will serve mares at $15.00 to insure a colt one week old; or $10.00 if paid as soon as the fact is ascertained that the mare is with foal. JORDON PEACOCK has proven himself to be one of the best breeders in Kentucky. His colts command the highest prices and are good sellers at any age. His colts have been sold as high as $2,000. I will $50.00 in premiums on his colts: For the best colt $25.00; 2, $15.00; 3, $10.00; to be shown at the Columbia Fair in 1904. Bring your mares and raise a colt that will bring your own price. I WILL STAND TWO FIRST-CLASS JACKS AT $7.00 TO INSURE a living colt, money due when colt is foaled, or mare leave the neighborhood. All care taken to prevent accidents but I will not be responsible for any.

HORSE TRAINING.
Persons having horses that they want trained should bring them to me. I have a first-class handler and will handle them for 50c a day. I want to buy some nice fancy horses; will pay good prices for the right kind. Thanking the people for past patronage and soliciting the future I am yours truly,
W. L. GRADY, - Gradyville, Kentucky.

Teachers examination next Friday and Saturday.

San Lewis has a car-load of salt, lime and cement for sale.

Mr. Bryan S. Miller has been appointed postmaster at Crocus, this county.

The Columbia Sales Company will sell fifty head of horses and mules next Monday.

The weather last Saturday was delightful for farming, hence a very light vote was polled.

Come to the stock sale at Columbia next Monday.

We understand that Frank Miller and his deputies are ready for circuit court beginning next Monday.

Two doves were bitten by two rattlesnakes on Green River a few days ago. The snakes were killed.

Remember the horse sale next Monday. The place to buy is the place to sell, the place to sell is the place to buy.

Fred Robertson handles the Fish Brand fertilizer, the best that is made. See him at Staples, Robertson & Co.'s, livery.

J. D. Sharp, of Amandaaville, sold, last week, to J. P. Dobson, Sr., this county, eleven head of cattle at $20 per head.

20c. I will pay you your grease wool, clear of burrs.

W. L. Walker.

The lardier is very prevalent in and about Columbia. Eight persons out of ten are more or less afflicted.

Some very fine perch were caught last week. They measured from sixteen to twenty-two inches in length.

We learn from Mr. N. M. Tutt, deputy circuit court clerk, that the docket for the term, commencing next Monday, is larger than usual.

Boys who are acquainted with ways that are dark and tricks that are vain will be hiding out next week. There will be twelve in every mill in town.

Rev. J. T. Hall, pastor of the Baptist Church at Palestine, Taylor county, died very suddenly Tuesday of last week. He was one of the best preachers in the Russell-Creek Association.

Ed. W. K. Ashill, Messrs. J. A. Garrett, Jr., and G. P. Smith spoke to the young people last Saturday afternoon. They handled the liquor question and the consequences of the use of ardent spirits.

Nice line of wall paper, also full and complete line of straw matting, etc.

W. L. Walker.

The potato bug has made his appearance. In fact they are here in great numbers. They are taking life and will wait patiently until potatoes come up before commencing actual destruction.

It is said that the pike from here to Campbellville is getting in fine condition. A great deal of rock was put over the road during the winter which have become frozen, making travel most unpleasant.

A primary election will be held by the Democrats of Green county June 8th for the purpose of nominating a candidate for circuit court clerk. Our old friend, Ed Blakeman is a candidate for re-election and it is said he will surely win.

Next Monday will be the opening of the Adair circuit court. The occasion will doubtless bring a very large crowd to Columbia. We hope all those who are indebted to this office will call and make payment without further notice.

FOR SALE—A good dwelling and ten acres of ground, good barn and other buildings, all under good fencing, and two good springs. It is located near the residence of Mr. Prichard Dobson.

H. C. Dixon.

By a mistake our subscribers at Greenville did not get the News of last Wednesday until late in the week.

The package was sent first to Gradyville and the mistake was made at this office. We will guard against such inconveniences in the future.

In a few days Mr. Hudson will commence clearing the rubbish from the Fair Grounds, repairing, fencing, etc. He says he intends to do everything in his power to make the country fair the best one ever held in Adair county. The opening will be August 18, four days.

Mr. Porter Price, who was adjudged a lunatic in the Adair county court a few weeks ago, has not as yet been placed in an asylum. Her husband started with her, but upon reaching Greensburg he was informed by telegram that the institutions of the State were all full.

I have all sizes in screen doors and windows at prices less than you can have them made.

W. L. Walker.

It is again reported that a new time table for the Louisville and Nashville will take effect Sunday the 24th inst. If the arrangement as announced proves correct, one of our Louisville men will reach here at 10:30 at night. A strong protest should be sent to Columbia.

Taken up as strays by Cloud Hurt, in Adair county, Ky., in town of Columbia, 3 black sows, not marked—small white spot on nose of one of them. Taken by W. J. Page to be worth $20.00. Given under my hand the 14th day of April 1903.

JOHN EUBANK, J. P. A. C.

Mr. Jas. T. Page informed us a few days ago that the stove business was good. Several stoves have been run out in the country and at this writing there are many thousands upon the various yards. This business has been a source of bringing much revenue into Adair county, and there is a vast amount of timber yet standing.

FOR SALE.—One pair of platform wagon scales. I will sell cheap. Also hand made, jump-seat survey in good condition.

W. L. Walker.

Speaking of the weather an old writer says that in May, 1851, there was a heavy black frost, destroying whole orchards of fruits, all grapes and many tender trees. The mercury went down to 20 degrees and all the leaves on the trees turned black and fell off. Perhaps some of the older citizens of Columbia remember this cold snap.

U. S. RECTOR, who is the editor of the Albany Journal, was arrested last week, charged with selling liquor. The officer was en route to this place with Rector, but at Russell Springs he took leg bail and made his escape. It is our understanding that the Government authorities charge that Rector violated the revenue laws while a citizen of Russell county.

Mr. C. C. Stephens, who became a citizen of Adair county last year, locating at Bliss, is one of the best farmers in all this section. More than a week ago he was through planting corn. He has the largest corn crop in the county and will perhaps set more plants than any other farmer. He is a very successful tobacco grower, raising and selling quite a number of hogsheads each year.

MARRIED.

Last Sunday forenoon Mr. C. R. Boyce, who is one of Adair county's best citizens and a prosperous farmer, was married to Miss Ida Barker, a highly accomplished young lady, a daughter of Mr. Almon Barker, of Eato, Russell county. A great many relatives and friends witnessed the ceremony which was impressively performed by Eld. A. H. Bangs, of Jamestown. This announcement will be a surprise to Mr. Boyce's friends throughout the county, as very few persons were advised of his intention. The News extends its congratulations.

If you want a nice stylish straw hat, Walker's is the place to get it, also nice line ready-to-wear shirts and full line of shirtings.

W. L. Walker.

The Louisville tobacco market was practically unchanged last week as compared to the week before, except tobacco not in good condition showed a slight weakening. There is no change to report in the market for green. Green county sold four hogsheads of Burley $8.50 to $4.50. The big market was down, choice selling at $6.50 to $8.00.

DIED.

Robert A. Morgan, son of Anderson Morgan, who lived on Crocus, Adair county, died on May 1, 1903, aged 43 years, one month and 6 days. He was a member of the Baptist Church and was perfectly resigned before death came. He leaves a wife and four children, father and mother and several other relatives and sisters.

Jim Grison, of color, who was employed at Staples, Robertson & Co.'s Livery, got upon his car last Sunday forenoon and refused to obey orders. Mr. Robertson told him to wash a buggy and with an oath he declined. As a result he left the stable hurriedly after being knocked in the head with a club. The Town Marshal pursued him, fired a shot to make him stop, but up to this writing he was not reported.

Gov. J. R. Hindman, who stopped in Louisville last week on his return from Nashville, was informed by Mr. Lapley, a Presbyterian minister well known here, that he had just received a telegram from Harlan Court-House stating that Prof. M. B. W. Granger, who was principal of the M. and F. High School, this place, last year, was thought to be dying. This intelligence will be received with sadness by many of Prof. Granger's former pupils.

WANTED.—A man of wide acquaintance and good address, to represent in Columbia, one of the oldest, best and cheapest Accident & Health companies in existence. Five hundred dollars in case of death, six dollars per week in case of accident, and six dollars per week in case of sickness, from disease. Also perfect identification free. For all of this protection, the combined cost is only $2.00 per year. Every body here. No commission. Write at once to Smith & Phillips, Room 5 Merrick Lodge Building, Lexington, Ky.

PREACHING NEXT SUNDAY.

T. Huffaker, Hutchinson School-house.

W. B. Cave, Blue Creek.

SURPRISE BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Any one living in the suburbs of Columbia on the Greensburg road on last Friday morning could in the forenoon see many ladies with baskets wending their way along the highways and over the hills to the home of Mrs. Eliza Cook where they surprised her with their well filled baskets of well cooked viands and many delicacies in the most profuse abundance.

The event was the celebration of Mrs. Cook's seventy-fifth birthday, and as a token of respect for this good woman all the ladies had assembled to do her honor with a surprise dinner. The dinner was set in the large hall of the old time farm house and to say it was fine and ample for many more than was present in attendance, is all one can say who was there.

Those present were: Messdames Jackson, Pease, Shearer, Elmore, McFarland, Johnston, Smith, Mitchell, Masses Wilson, Bradshaw, Elmore, Pease, McFarland, Shearer, Grison, Squels, Todd and Hutchinson.

MRS. Z. T. WILLIAMS DEAD.

The intelligence of the death of this highly respected and much beloved Christian lady will be felt throughout the county, and especially did it bring sorrow to the homes of the people living in the Montpellier section. It was here where she was born and reared and where she had been a Samaritan from early girlhood. A kind and sympathetic neighbor, a devoted wife and a loving mother, a friend to the unfortunate, a God fearing and a God serving woman.

For weeks husband and children watched tenderly by her bedside, hoping and praying that her life might be spared, but God's will is unchangeable, and at 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon May 6, 1903, her spirit took its flight.

The deceased was the estimable wife of Ed. Z. T. Williams and a daughter of the late Cyrus Wheat, who was known to almost every body in Adair County. Besides the husband who has been so sorely bereft, there are six children, Luther, Lawrence, Loren, John, Sallie and Lillie, whose sorrow can only be conceived by those who have lost a dear mother. May God in his infinite wisdom heal the wounds of the broken hearted and may this dispensation of Providence bring the husband and children closer to their Maker.

Funeral services will be held at 10 o'clock in this home today by the Rev. J. H. Montgomery and A. H. Bangs.

"The way is long to the Valley of Rest."

"Down the dim uncertain years;"

But we'll reach the valley where God thinks best.

When is never a vain of loss.

"We'll forget the gloom of the weary way When the thorn grows red and gray."

With answers sweet to the prayers we pray: The spirits of Peace will meet us there And a sigh will be the song.

"And deep the beautiful Valley of Rest We shall pass from this weary way."

With tired hands folded above the breast, We say to the Silence how God knew best And down in the light of God."

Mrs. Williams was fifty-eight years of age and had been a member of the Christian Church since early in life.

The following ministers officiated at the funeral: Rev. J. H. Montgomery, J. Q. Montgomery and A. H. Bangs.

The interment was at Pleasant Hill, many relatives and friends being present.

To the surviving husband and children, the writer extends his heartfelt sympathy.

J. E. M.

Teachers and pupils of the M. and F. High School took an outing last Friday and spent the day at Todd's Lake. Dinner was spread upon the green and the day was most enjoyable. Quite a number explored the caverns and those who did not enter contented themselves in playfellowship.

Teachers and pupils of the M. and F. High School took an outing last Friday and spent the day at Todd's Lake. Dinner was spread upon the green and the day was most enjoyable. Quite a number explored the caverns and those who did not enter contented themselves in playfellowship.

The following ministers officiated at the funeral: Rev. J. H. Montgomery, J. Q. Montgomery and A. H. Bangs.

The interment was at Pleasant Hill, many relatives and friends being present.

To the surviving husband and children, the writer extends his heartfelt sympathy.

Thorne, 29; Abe Renick, 23; Secretary of State, McChesney, 23; Attorney General, Hays, 23; Ira Julian, 6; Willard Mitchell, 25; Carroll, 3; Auditor, Haez, 30; Chenault, 17; Treasurer, Bowser, 218; Griffith, 11; Richardson, 20; Superintendent, Watkins, 3; Arnold, 4; Suggs, 18; Watt, 23; Potts, 45; Commissioner of Agriculture, Hubert Vreeland, 25; Hedger, 37; France, 12; Clerk of the Court of Appeals, Bob Greene, 132; Morgan Chinn, 164.

Get The Money.

I have placed in my show case a box containing 20 silver dollars and will give a key to this box with every $1. worth of goods purchased for cash. There are only three keys that unlock the box, first one to unlock gets $10, second one gets $6, third one gets $4. Somebody will get it, you may be the lucky one come before the keys are all gone.

FROM INDIAN TERRITORY.

We take the following extract from a letter written to Mr. O. B. Zinn, Keltner, this county:

As to the price of land, etc., I don't say that it is not possible at present to get a deed, as the Land Office opened the 15th of April and the Indians began to file on their land, and it will be many days before they will get a patent to their allotments, after which they will be allowed to sell one-half of their land which will be 100 acres of the average land. There will be a surplus of several hundred thousand acres, and it is impossible at present to know just how it will sell. But I feel safe in saying that it will be reasonable. I believe it will sell at $3.50 to $10 per acre, and it is very productive. It grows wheat at an average of 18 to 24 bushels per acre and corn from 35 to 40 bushels; cotton from one-third to one-half per acre, and a bale of cotton will sell from $40 to 50. It produces oats at about 40 to 50 bushels per acre. The country is a mixture of prairie and timber, and the prairie land is a close sward and sometimes black and sticky. It is very productive in the line of wheat, oats and corn, and hay crops. The timber land is of a high land and very productive in all the above named crops, and for peaches, apples, grapes, pears and various other fruits. It is just simply fine. We raise vegetables of the finest quality. We can not keep them as well during the winter as we could in Kentucky. We will sum it all up in one brief word, and say, that it is the finest country I have ever yet seen, and it offers all kinds of opportunities to young and old men of energy and push, in all lines and vocations of life. The Indians are civilized and friendly to the white man and welcome him into their country. We have good society especially in our cities and small towns. Nearly all denominations of religion are represented here and we have some fine pulpits. We have many beautiful towns and cities. Our city, Ardmore, is the largest in the Indian Territory. It has a population of about ten thousand and has three railroads. Railroads are built in all directions and the time is close when no man will live farther than ten miles from some railroad. If you ever come to this country make my place headquarters. You might, for the benefit of others, hand this letter to the Adair County News for publication. I was reared in Russell County, Ky., and have the interest of my home people at heart. Respectfully,

U. T. REEBBART.

Ardmore, I. T.

FROM MISSOURI.

CARROLLTON, April 30, 1903.

Mr. Editor:—An Adair county man is my father's native home. I have concluded to write a few lines for the paper. I visited Kentucky ten years ago. I was real small but I can remember a great deal about the country. We had a nice visit. Pa and myself were grandpa. He didn't know as we were coming to see him. Pa went up in speaking distance before he knew we were in Kentucky. It had been many years since grandpa had seen father. Martin M. Dameron is my father and Mr. Elzy Dameron, of Perry, is my grandfather. Pa was born in Adair county, June 12, 1861, and is now 41 years old. He was only 10 years old when he came to Missouri. About a year after his arrival he met Miss Bobbie New and in three years thereafter they were married. They started with out a home, renting several years then bought a farm containing twenty acres 2 1/2 miles east of Vandalia, Mo., then after several years they bought some more land, making 200 acres in all. We had a big home and the farm was bottom land. We lived there until two years ago when my parents traded this place for 160 acres of prairie land, worth from seventy-five to eighty dollars per acre, 6 1/2 miles north of Carrollton. Our home is well improved. Father has had a good deal of fencing put on the farm; had good smoke-houses and a good ice-house built just a few years back. Some people do like Missouri who have come here and have gone back to Kentucky in a short time. Missouri—like other States—has poor land, but there are many fine farms as can be found in the United States.

I have two sisters, Jessie and Bobbie. I only have one brother, Martin E. Dameron. He is ten years old, can drive a team as well as any body. He works in the field with a team.

I don't suppose I will ever visit old Kentucky again. I would like to see grandpa and would be glad to have him come to see us.

JOHNIE DAMON.

Stuart Robson, comedian, died in New York of heart disease, aged 65. He had been on the stage for 51 years.

Thirty-five hundred employees of the Dearing Harvester Works in Chicago are on a strike. More than 2,000 men remain at work.

The New York Legislature has enacted a law regulating the employment of newboys in New York city and Buffalo. The law will take effect on September 1. Frederick S. Hall, secretary of the child labor committee, speaking of this measure, says: "Under the new law no girls under the age of sixteen are allowed to sell newspapers. Boys under the age of ten may not engage in this occupation, and between the ages of ten and fourteen they must secure a license and badge from the school authorities, and are not allowed to work later than 10 o'clock at night."

GENERAL NEWS.

While wrestling with a friend at his home in Pomfret Conn., Albert Petersen, aged forty years, was thrown in such a way that his neck was broken.

Mr. John Cullen stopped at a street crossing in Cincinnati to let a train pass, when a spark from a locomotive set fire to her clothing and she was burned almost to death.

Members of the National Live Stock Association have subscribed $25,000,000 to form a co-operative company to fight the best trust of the projected merger carried through.

Gaston M. Jordan, of Caruthersville, Mo., a medical student, aged twenty-two years, who had been attending college at Memphis, committed suicide by taking a large quantity of chloral. The young man failed to pass the senior examination and the fact is attributed to despondency.

The following order has been issued by the Post Office Department at Washington: "Special delivery mail addressed bona fide patrons of rural routes will be delivered by rural carriers at patrons' residences without regard to their distances from the routes. A bona fide patron of the rural service is one who has properly pre-arranged on a rural route a mail box which has received the approval of the Postoffice Department for use on such routes."

Dedication exercises for the Louisiana Purchase Exposition attracted tens of thousands of visitors to St. Louis, where the President of the United States delivered the formal dedication address, after David B. Francis, president of the Exposition, had turned over the buildings to him for the purpose. Former President Cleveland also made an address. Prior to their ceremonies a great military parade of over 11,000 regulars and volunteers passed through the streets of the World City. At night a magnificent display of fireworks added brilliancy to the day's program. Various State buildings were dedicated Saturday, which was the closing day of the exercises. There was an imposing civic parade.

ANEAT PROGRAM.

Now that the Dedication Ceremonies of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition (The World's Fair) are so close at hand, the public is commencing to wonder what St. Louis has to offer in the way of entertainment to out-of-town visitors.

The Henderson Route (which is The World's Fair Line) has gotten out a very neat booklet, post-pocket size, which contains the complete official program of these ceremonies.

It is a modern piece of work in every respect, printed in green and red with gray antique cover and high grade enameled book stock inside.

Copies will be gladly furnished on application.

AGE LIMITATION.

There is a growing sentiment which precludes old age from enjoying the benefits of choice positions in the business world. Youth is everywhere preferred. In this respect Electric Bitters is different. It benefits old and young alike. Rev. C. J. Badgley of Ashway, R. I. writes: "I feel every body to know what Electric Bitters is. It cured me of jaundice and liver trouble from which I had suffered for years. It's a great tonic and nerve and cures Liver, Kidney and Stomach troubles. Only 50c and guaranteed by all druggists."

The next time President Roosevelt quotes from the last letter of Rial, the Filipino patriot, he should be fair enough to state the circumstances under which that letter was written. Rial wrote the letter while a prisoner in the hands of the Spaniards and it was written for the purpose of deceiving the jailers and saving his own life if possible. Galileo and John Milton, the poet, did the same thing under circumstances of a similar nature.

QUICK ARREST.

J. A. G. Jedge of Verbena, Ala., was twice in the hospital from a severe case of piles causing 24 tumors. After doctors and all remedies failed, Bucklen's Arnica Salve quickly arrested further inflammation and cured him. It conquers aches and kills pain. 25c at all drug stores.

"Slowly but surely," remarks the Glasgow Times, "and with unerring fatfulness, the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, concerning the most fenishish, the most cowardly assassination that has ever blackened Kentucky's history, is coming to light." Before the end is reached honest, brave men of all classes will realize that the honor of our State demands the punishment of the last man connected with the horrible conspiracy.

ITEMS OF INTEREST.

News comes from D. H. Turner, a druggist at Demopostown, Pa., that Dr. King's New Life Pills are the best sellers in his store. After using them himself he says, "they are truly great; actual experience convinced me. Every body wants them for constipation, stomach and liver troubles. 25c at all drug stores."

Rev. Sam Jones shoots pretty hard but he clearly always drives clear. Recently while lecturing in an Iowa town which had three license saloons, he asked how much the license paid the town? $800, answered one man. What is your population? 2,000 came the answer. The speaker figured a little and then said: The liquor dealers wait up to you and say, if you will let us damn this town we will give you forty cents a piece. "Say what is a 200 pound hog worth here? answer $15. So said Jones, hogs twelve dollars a piece and men forty cents a head. "Say, another don't you wish you were a hog? Why you and your whole family would not bring enough to buy a sucking pig."

A certain farmer who has raised turkeys for many years and who takes pleasure in making experiments, says that charcoal, turkey fat and diamonds are alike in some respects. It is a fact that more fat may be gotten out of charcoal than one would suspect, without a knowledge of chemistry. The following experiment was tried with four turkeys in a pen by themselves and four others in a separate pen: The first were fed on meat, boiled potatoes and oats. The other four were fed on the same diet, with the addition of one pint of very finely pulverized charcoal mixed with the food. They had also a plentiful supply of broken charcoal in their pen. The eight were killed the same day and there was a difference of one and one-half pounds each in favor of the ones fed on charcoal. They were much fatter and the meat was superior in point of tenderness and flavor.
